

Cornelius Leadership Congress

Nominating Form

Please type or print and give all information requested. All four criteria must be addressed.

Name of Nominee:

Home Address:

Home Telephone:

Work Telephone:

Nominee's District:

Submitted by:

Name:

Title (if a district unit nomination):

Date:

Dorothy Alice Cornelius was executive director of the Ohio Nurses Association from 1957 to 1983, president of the International Council of Nurses from 1973 to 1977, president of the American Nurses Association from 1968 to 1970, and president of the American Journal of Nursing Company – the largest publisher of nursing periodicals in the world – from 1967 to 1968. She is the only person to have functioned in all of those positions.

She believed that one nurse could make a difference, proving it through her own life's work.

Please explain ways the nominee demonstrates each leadership characteristic.

Exhibits outstanding oral, listening and written communication skills within a professional organization.

Demonstrates the ability to motivate others by developing mentoring and collegial relationships within a professional organization.

Analyzes problems and develops strategies for solution by thinking logically and creatively within a professional organization.

Demonstrates caring attributes within a professional organization.